

MINTRAC State of Training Forum

Thursday 15 August 2019

Quality Hotel Lighthouse, Bunbury WA

Join meat industry trainers, processors, researchers and related personnel for a one-day State of Training Forum which features cutting edge industry developments, training initiatives and much more.

The Quality Hotel Lighthouse provides panoramic ocean views right across the Indian Ocean and is located just steps to pristine beaches and 2 minutes to the city centre.

Event 1: Rural Women's Breakfast, with guest speaker

Presented in partnership with the Rural, Regional, Remote Women's Network of WA

Event 2: One day Training Forum,

Presented in partnership with the Food, Fibre and Timber Industries Training Council, WA

Featuring presentations on:

- State government – policy and directions
- Identifying training and skills priorities
- Roles and responsibilities of ASNs
- The AMP Australian Meat Industry Training Package
- Providing training for feedlots
- Attracting young people to rural careers
- Story of a family processing business
- Growing business as an independent butcher
- Selling local product overseas
- Celebrating student achievement – stories from three students
- Developing a training strategy for the poultry processing industry

(Note some of these presentations are still to be confirmed and the program may change)

Event 3: Networking dinner

Join industry friends and guests for dinner at the Geographe Room of the Quality Hotel Lighthouse.

Light entertainment included.

Registration costs:

Breakfast only: $ 40.00

Training Forum only: $280.00

Dinner only: $100.00

All three events: $400.00