

Den Chan

My training journey

AMP31016 Certificate III in Meat Processing
(Smallgoods Manufacturing)

Response Learning

Who am I?

- ▶ Born in Cambodia
- ▶ Moved to Australia when I was 16
- ▶ Completed school and got a job
- ▶ Started at Primo 10 years ago
  - Slice / pack
  - Bacon packaging
  - Packaging ham

My training journey – in the beginning

- ▶ Started in March 2015
- ▶ Certificate III in Meat Processing (Smallgoods Manufacture)
- ▶ 26 units of competency
  - 5 core units
  - 21 elective units
- ▶ March 2017 – Response Learning
  - Kate became my trainer
  - Support from my section manager and supervisor

My training journey

- ▶ My training was both on and off the job
  - In the training room to introduce me to a new unit and to learn the theory
  - On the job for practical training throughout the Primo factory
- ▶ Practical training on the raw side
  - Curing and corning process
  - The batching and blending process
  - Operating the mixer and blender equipment
  - Fermenting and maturing products
  - Smoking products

My training journey

- ▶ The assessment process:
  - Before my assessment I read through my notes and practice quiz
  - Kate watched me doing my job and asked me lots of questions
  - At the end I was told I had passed the assessment

My training journey – comes to an end

- ▶ On 15 March 2018 I did my last assessment
- ▶ This week I got my certificate

My training journey – the future

- ▶ Now that I have finished my Certificate III I would like to continue learning and helping others on their training journey
- ▶ Maybe one day I will be a supervisor of my section or a trainer as well

Thank you!

